Description
In Kelethin there is an NPC named Londiar Inygdad (in Tunare's Pages at 457, 91, 332) who gives three different daily quests. Each will net you some progress in Transmuting, Adorning, and Tinkering skill. The quests provide everything except the fuel needed to craft (Adorning and Tinkering only obviously). There are fundamental skills that everyone can take advantage of regardless of playstyle and it would be monumental to not have to worry about leveling these skills manually (and without spending a fortune to stockpile transmutables to use /ogre transmute). Can we get a script that will run these after completing "ogre adt" ? :)
