Description
I have been wondering about why there is a lack of ppl Sharing there Class casting order and i have come to the conclusion, its not because ppl don't wish to share but they can not be sure all there characters names are removed from these profiles. The idea here is to have all the names removed via a new share export option, which will remove names and any other sensitive info from the profile. I know i for one would love to have some options open for sharring these profiles.

Already exists.

Admin tab

Put a file name and profile name and hit the Save Custom Profile.

It changes the alias tab to "EditMe" for everything.

It ONLY changes the alias tab though, so you would have to make sure you are using aliases everywhere (which you should be).
